

Dear Executive;

I consider Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days as a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If they wish to take one side of a political debate, then I do not see why they should be entitled to use the public airwaves to broadcast their message.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
